OVERVIEW

Each day in lecture we will learn new material and homework exercises will be assigned from the textbook. These exercises will not be collected, but it is essential to your understanding that you work through them before the next lecture. Detailed solutions will be posted to Blackboard.

Each day in lab we will work through a chapter in Professor Grossman's Notes on MatLab, pairing up in groups of two to use the computers. Each chapter ends with a sequence of exercises which will be assigned as homework. These lab assignments must be (physically) turned in at the beginning of the following week's lab.

Quizzes and exams will be based on assigned exercises and announced 1-2 weeks in advance. Calculators are not allowed, although you may find it helpful to use a graphing device while studying. In general, no make-up quizzes or exams will be given. If you have to miss a quiz/exam, you must email me in advance and include a justification for your absence.
