

Extra Credit 1

John Adamski

October 16, 2017

Problem

Find a function  $f : \mathbb{R} \rightarrow \mathbb{R}$  such that  $f$  is differentiable everywhere, but  $f'$  is not continuous at 0. Show that this function satisfies these conditions.